

Level 3: Ordination Course Description 2023-2024

BIB 313: Corinthian Correspondence

An expository study of First and Second Corinthians. Paul's responses to the problems afflicting the Corinthian church, the appropriate operation of the gifts of the Spirit within the congregation, and Paul's views of Christian character and ministry are highlighted.

BIB 318 : The Pentateuch

An in-depth study of the first five books of the Old Testament. Highlighting God's personal relationship with His creation and the loving covenants made with His people, the study examines the Pentateuch's revelation of God's character and the requirements for a relationship with Him.

BIB 322: The Poetic Books

A study of the Psalms as the Hebrew-Christian prayer book and hymnal. The course includes a study of selected Psalms, noting the authorship, historical setting, structure, meaning, and spiritual application of each. Also studied are the classification of the Psalms, the Messianic applications and citations of Psalms in the New Testament, and their function in the Early Church.

MIN 325: Preaching in the Contemporary World

The principles, process, and problems of communicating from one culture to another. Special attention is given to the development of attitudes and methods enabling effective communication of the gospel to people in other cultures.

MIN 327: Church Administration, Finance, and Law

A study of American ecclesiastical law, addressing contemporary legal issues affecting churches and ministers.

MIN 381: Pastoral Ministry

A study of the practical aspects of pastoral ministry, including the pastor's call, preaching, teaching, church leadership, family life, and more.

MIN 391: Advanced Ministerial Mentorship

A practical ministry experience that fulfills the Assemblies of God internship requirements for credentialing at the ordained level.

THE 311: Theology of Prayer and Worship

A study of biblical prayer stressing the importance and impact of prayer in contemporary life and ministry, including an exploration of the scriptural and theological foundations for individual and corporate praise and worship. Various styles and formats of worship are discussed relative to both historical and contemporary settings.
