

2019 ROAR Conference
Speaker and Worship Bios

Keynote Speaker: Jodi Detrick

Dr. Jodi Detrick, author of the Jesus-Hearted Woman, is a certified personal coach and an in-demand speaker for many groups across America. Jodi, an adjunct professor at Northwest University, loved to talk to people at heart-level about things that matter most. For many years, she was a religion columnist for The Seattle Times, one of America's leading newspapers. Jodi lives with her minister husband, Don, in the rainy Pacific Northwest where lattes are always a good idea.

Worship Leaders: Lindsay Potter and Amanda Serpas

Lindsay Potter is a resident of Washington D.C. and the Worship Pastor at Jubilee Christian Center in Fairfax, Virginia. As a songwriter, she desires for others to encounter the reality of the Holy Spirit through worship.

Amanda Serpas is the Worship Pastor at River of Life Worship Center in Spotsylvania, Virginia. After several years of a career in Theater, Amanda felt a strong call into worship ministry. She feels honored to be used by God in facilitating genuine worship, that ministers to hearts and changes lives.
